MORE REPARATIONS DELAY.

(Renter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, August. 23.

Copies of the French note have been circulated amongst the members of the Cabinet. An immediate rejoinder is unlikely as it is felt that the very complicated document must be thoroughly examined by experts before it is possible to determine whether it constitutes a modification of France's attitude.

Mr. Baldwin has not changed his plans and departs on a holiday to Aix-les-Bains on August 26. It is pointed out that Belgium's reply has not yet been received and may possibly contain constructive suggestions.

ENGLIGHTENING A FRIEND.

PARIS, August 23. The remark of the Echo de Paris that "the document does not aim at victoriously refuting the enemy but enlightening and convincing a friend assertion of the whose assistance is precious" is the keynote of the French press comments which chorus their praise of the "clarity, precision, force, courtesy and firmness of the French note. They refuse to believe Britain will fail to listen to the voice of reason or deliberately reject a plan of settlement safeguarding her interests.

BERLIN PRESS GLOOMY.

BERLIN, August 23.

The French note is unfavourably commented on by the papers, which see no prospect of a solution therein.

PREVENTION OF ANTHRAX.

GENEVA, August 23. It is announced here that the United States have accepted the invitation of the Council of the League of Nations to be represented at the meeting of the Fifth Commission, at which humanitarian questions act in a consultative capacity. The meeting of the joint advisory committee on Agriculture dealt with the prevention of the spread of anthrax infection. This question will be discussed at the forthcoming meeting of the International Institute of Agriculture, which will call the attention of the different governments to the urgent necessity of steps being taken to cope with

Explosives as "Table Salt."

According to a message from Dublin, an extraordinary capture is reported from the border, where troops have seized nearly a ton of explosives consigned to the Free State as table salt. The consignment, which was made up in halfpound packets, purported to be sent from a merchant in Belfast to merchant in county Meath. The cases containing the packets, as well as the packets themselves, were stamped with the name and address of a Belfast merchant. The suspicions of the Free State Cus- Broadcasts. toms officers were aroused and the cases opened, when the packets were found to contain material used in the manufacture of a high explosive known as "Irish Cheddar."

Lord Grey on the War Spirit.

Viscount Grey, who was accompanied by Viscountess Grey, opened a British Legion fête at Amesbury, near Salisbury. He said he was one of those who thought the advantages of the country were greater than those of the town; but one advantage of the town was Man at Ealing. that of having good music, and he congratulated the British Legion on having a good band in Amesbury. The British Legion was doing an admirable work in keeping alive the spirit which won the war. In spite of that victory, the country was suffering from the effects of the war, but it would be some compensation for the suffering if we preserved in peace that spirit of comradeship and courage which did so much to win the war. We should keep that spirit alive, but not for the purposes of war. Concerts at Home.

Concerts in private houses seem to be the fashion again (the Morning Post says.) In days now long past they were of frequent occurrence during "the season," the performers as a rule being the foreign artists who used to flock to London in summer. Grosvenor House, with its beautiful music room and charming outlook was often the scene of these entertainments. Another was the Park Lane residence of the Lord Brassey, the peculiar architectural design of which enabled visitors to hear the music from all floors while admiring the wonderful Sunspot Mysteries. collection of Indian and other curiosities gathered during the cruises of the famous Sunbeam. Many London houses have music rooms of unsuspected beauty and

" CONTROL OF FUNDS.

A meeting of the Exhibition Committee of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday under the presidency of Mr. Li Po-kwai. Amongst others present were: Sir Robert Ho Tung, the Hon. Mr. R. H. Kotewall, Mr. T. N. Chau, and Mr. Ho Kwong. Towards the close of the meeting the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax (Secretary for Chinese Affairs), the Hon, Mr. P. Holyoak, Mr. D. K. Blair (Secretary to the General Chamber of Commerce) and Mr. J. Fleming, of Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews (who have been recommended by the Joint Committee to H.E. the Governor to act as accountants to the Hongkong section of the Exhibition) attended a d several points which had arisen

Mr. Kotewall, in giving a brief resume of the proceedings last Friday, said that the London of some of these coolies that they Committee were very desirous that the scheme for having a Chinese restaurant in the Hongkong section should be carried out. The abandonment of the scheme, the London Committee had argued would cause much delay in the construction of the premises as the necessary plans for the buildings had been perfected and any alterations to these plans would cause considerable trouble. As to the Chinese application for reduction freight on all exhibits sent to England, including those intended to be sold at the Exhibition. Mr Kotewall said that the Joint Committee had sent another letter to London on the matter. He also explained that Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews had been recommended as auditors to the Hongkong section with powers to control the financial assistance provided by the Government. This had been in accordance with the wishes of HE. the Governor. Matthews had prepared forms for distribution amongst intending ex-

The question of the Chineserestaurant was again mentioned and a leading Chinese supporter of the scheme expressed the opinion that a large number of waiters and a kitchen staff would be a necessary feature. It was pointed out, however, that the arrangements to be made were subject to the fund allotted by the Government proving sufficient and further discussion of the matter was adjourned ed pending investigation.

This concluded the business before the meeting.

> British Tax, but liable to Irish Income Tax, which is 5/- in the pound for 1923-24.

There are apparently still many neople deriving income from the United Kingdom who are unaware that they can recover at least part of the income tax charged on it. This is in many cases, due to the fact that dividends are often marked "free of tax" and in some instances even no mention whatever of tax is made where they are paid through a local branch of a British Company. In both these cases, however, tax is recoverable.

Should any of your readers desire further information on this question, I shall be pleased to advise years. It will not be possible them, if they will address me at 13. Buckingham Palace Gardens, Lon-

THE TELEPHONE HANDBOOK

The Fourth issue of the TELEPHONE HANDBOOK will be published in AUGUST, 1923.

The TELEPHONE HANDBOOK consists of an up-to-date and accurate index of Telephone Subscribers, the numbers being given in sequence.

The TELEPHONE HANDBOOK has met a want which has long been felt amongst users of the Telephone, as it proviles an easy means of ascertaining the name of the Subscriber without the necessity of a search through the ordinary alphabetical directory.

The TELEPHONE HANDBOOK costs $1 per copy and is sold on the strict understanding that on the publication of a new one the old one will be returned to the publishers. The proviso is made in the interests of Subscribers in view of the frequent changes that take place.

A bitter debate is being waged in Washington (D. C.) art circles over the charge of Ulric S. J. 1 Dunbar, a sculptor, that George Julian Zolnay, another scupitor of note, appropriated his ideas. Sixteen years ago Danbar modelled his statue to "Mammy," depicting a negro nurse holding her white ward, while others played about her skirts. A few months ago Zolnay produced his model of "Lest W Forget," showing an old negro nurse caring for a white infant, while her own coloured child stood at her side, crying for attention.

When Miss Elsie Lathrop, heiress, became the bride, in London, of R, K. Taylor her bridesmaids all journeyed from the United States to stand with her. In the group are: Miss Cecily Cassely, Miss Sylvia Lathrop, sister of the bride, and Miss Helen Rice. Viscomtesse de Sibour, formerly Miss Violet Selfridge, daughter of London's merchant prince, was another of the attendants.

G. Good Luck for Harding -11. Before he sailed for Alaska the late President Harding stopped for a speech in Pocatello, Idaho. The shop workers of the city presented him with a horseshoe for good luck, A. S. Atkins making the presentation speech for his fellow workers.

HOW MUCH IS YOUR BABY WORTH?

Y u will surely rep'y, "He is worth, , world !" Such being the case you will be publicated to know of a medicine which will help your baby's teething, enable him to sleep coundly, digost well and devolop into a sturdy, healthy child. The rame of this already well-known Canadian child: on's remedy is l'aby's Own Tablets. Here is one endo-sement out of many received. It comes from an American mother, Mrs. W. M. Stoddart of East Brockfield, Vt., U.S. A., who writes:—
"I have nover found enything as good as Baby's Own Tablets for regulating the bowels of little children. By haby was sick a d restless while cutting his teeth but the Tablets quick'y made him all Raby's Own Tablets are an absolutely safe remedy for simple fever, indigestion, constitution, colic, diarrices, croup, eczems, also to expel worms. From chemiats or post free, 80 cents the vial, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 6 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.
